

- Land Surveying
- Land Planning
- Civil Engineering

Field Technician

Combs & Associates is looking for an individual with a minimum 3 years experience that would like to further their career in all aspects of Land Surveying. The candidate would be a self motivated person with the ability to adapt quickly to changes. Our staff regularly works on residential and commercial surveys, as well as both site and road construction projects. We offer competitive salaries and benefits. Please send resumes and inquiries to rjcombs@combssurvey.com.